

HiFormer® Liquid Masterbatches

Thermoplastic

Clariant Corporation

Message:

HiFormer® - the brand new system for liquid masterbatches. Exploring new and innovative dimensions in design, flexibility and performance with brand owners and plastics processors.

Benefits

With HiFormer®, you are surrounded by service, technology and expertise from the design stage to the start of production and beyond. This system is founded on three primary elements: Converse, exploration phase, Co-Creation, collaborative development of an ideal solution, and Complete, implementation phase. HiFormer® opens up manifold possibilities.
